Jesus says that in persecuting the church, Saul is persecuting him (Acts 9:4, 5). What does this say about the relationship between Jesus and his people?

6

The dramatic “Damascus Road-type conversion” is not everyone’s story. But, is there a sense in which every believer is arrested and called out by Jesus? What do even the tamest testimonies have in common with Saul’s conversion?

7

How does the picture of Saul having to be led by the hand (Acts 9:8b) contrast with the earlier image of him “breathing threats and murder” (Acts 9:1)?
